

GentlemenI respectfully urge that the FCC reject petition 04-160. Even though I do not live in an area served with local content, it seems ludicrous to me that we would be actively encouraging local content for satellite TV but in some way think it would be beneficial to the consumer to limit his choices on the radio dial.

Thank you for your time
Gary Woodley